- internal audits;
- investigations carried out by the Data Protection Officer;

- security investigations; or
- within the frame of the grant management or procurement procedure, after the closing date of the submission of the calls for proposals or the application of tenders.

These situations can create the necessity of a restriction on the right to information, the right of access to your processed data, the right of rectification or the right to confidentiality. The restriction shall continue to apply as long as the reasons justifying it remain applicable.

7.9. If you wish to submit a request to exercise one or more of the rights listed above, you can contact us by sending an e-mail to dpo@kdt-ju.europa.eu. An e-mail requesting to exercise a right will not be construed as consent with the processing of your personal data beyond what is required for handling your request. Such request should meet the following conditions:

- State clearly which right you wish to exercise; and
- Your request should be accompanied by a digitally scanned copy of your valid identity card proving your identity.

We will promptly inform you of having received your request. If the request meets the conditions above and proves valid, we will honor it as soon as reasonably possible and at the latest thirty (30) days after having received your request.

If you have any complaints regarding the processing of your personal data by us, you may always contact us by sending an e-mail to dpo@kdt-ju.europa.eu.
